Hall & Company CPAs of Irvine, Calif. has admitted Don Dahl its senior tax partner in a move that will further expand the firm's thriving tax practice in Southern California.

Dahl has more than 35 years of experience serving clients in the U.S. and internationally. His extensive work history includes many years at a Big 4 accounting firm.

"I have known Don for over 30 years and he is a tremendous addition to our team. He brings the depth and sophistication that can only come through decades of hard work and commitment to providing elite business advisory services," says managing director Bradford Hall.

Dahl has worked on all aspects of taxation, succession planning, mergers and acquisitions and business planning. He is a focused, trusted business advisor who believes in forging a long-term relationship with his clients and the people who work with him.

Prior to joining Hall & Company, Dahl was a tax partner at Arthur Anderson; leader of the Southern California tax practice of Grant Thornton; and most recently, the tax practice leader at a Southern California based CPA firm.
