

THE ORANGE COUNTY REGISTER

PRICE: $1 • MONDAY, JUNE 20, 2016 • OCREGISTER.COM

THE ORANGE COUNTY REGISTER

BUSINESS

ON THE MOVE

Robert A. Rango has been named president and chief executive of Enevate Corp. Enevate is a developer of silicon lithium-ion batteries. Rango has more than 30 years of experience in the technology industry and served as the executive vice president and general manager at Broadcom Corp. Brian Wong, who has served as president and CEO of Enevate since 2010, will help with the transition.

Vernon Leake has been appointed CEO of finance and insurance provider SouthWest Dealer Services. He succeeds Eric Hamann, who will serve as president. Leake previously served as the company's senior vice president of reinsurance and as managing director at Spencer Capital Holdings Ltd.

Mel Chambers has been elected chairman of the board for the Ocean Institute. Chambers, a longtime Dana Point resident, has been involved with the institute since 1989 and has been a board member since 1991.

Don Dahl has been named a senior tax partner at Hall & Co. CPAs, an Irvine-based tax and accounting firm. The move should help the firm further its tax practice in Southern California. Before joining Hall & Co., Dahl was a tax partner at Arthur Andersen, leader of the Southern California tax practice of Grant Thornton and, most recently, tax practice leader at a Southern California-based CPA firm.

Dahl

Delegates with the Girl Scouts of Orange County have elected four new board members: Jacqueline Akerblom of Newport Beach, managing partner of Grant Thornton LLP's West region; Holly Garcia of Anaheim Hills, executive director of sales, major accounts for Ingram Micro Inc.; Lisa Perrine of Newport Beach, CEO of system integration firm Cibola Systems Corp.; and Jeff Winston of Yorba Linda, who spent the past 20 years in the pharmaceutical and medical device business for Allergan.

Akerblom

Garcia